

Spend a day with guest Artist

Kirsty Humphrys

and learn the fundamentals of drawing...

From a young age Kirsty had always wanted to do art in some form. Winning numerous awards in school art competitions she went on to attend the Queensland College of Art in Commercial Design. She furthered her career in the advertising and marketing world as a Graphic Designer for advertising agencies and running her own studio.

Her passion nowadays lies with testing and trialling of new mediums and styles for both her nudes and signature flowers. Due to a full time job in the media she mainly does her art for commissions.

In the morning, students will learn fundamental drawing skills. Working from two nude models, one male and one female, the focus will be on short poses with a more gestural approach to drawing the figure.

Students will then gain a better understanding of the figure through longer studies.

After lunch, take your favourite drawing, and adapt it to create an interesting, modern piece of art using acrylics on canvas. We'll have lots of samples on display that you take inspiration from – using textures, pastels, glazes and much more.

Enjoy a glass or two of champagne to help the creativity flow, and enjoy what will be a truly fun day!

Nude Models and ALL materials are included in this fantastic price.
The only thing you have to bring is some lunch.

Date: Saturday 5th July 2008

Time: 9.30am - 4.30pm

Minimum 5 Students

Maximum 10 students

Cost: $245.00

Includes

- 2 Nude Models
- A2 30 page sketch book per person
- Charcoals, Pencils
- 60 x 60 cm or 50 x70 cm Canvas
- Acrylics, Pastels, etc
- Free Resin

Deposit required: $75.00