Cubism Day with Leanne Carkeet

The Verdict?

Well, what can I say? The results speak for themselves. Leanne was a great teacher, and the day was very informative and loads of fun. We've got pictures of 2 finished paintings, and two are still works in progress. Photos of those will appear in a later Newsletter. To those who couldn't make it because of the dreaded flu, we hope you're feeling better.

Thanks Leanne for a fabulous day and we look forward to having you again. If anyone has any thoughts on future workshops with Leanne, here are a couple of options.

A Klimt Christmas workshop - all gold and swirls or perhaps Matisse/Fauvism portraits - very colourful indeed!

Please email and let us know what type of workshop you'd like to attend, and we'll do our best to organise a day.

What did our budding cubists have to say?

Garry (above) ...

"Having not picked up a paintbrush for 30 years it was a fantastic opportunity to unlock my creativity in a fun and supportive environment. There's no holding me back now! Good wine, good fun, good day."

Simone (right) ...

"I had a wonderful day. It was both educational and fun and although a little daunting at first, we were guided every step of the way. The wine wasn't bad either! Thank you for bringing out my inner Cubist. Can't wait for my next "art day out"."

The Colours of Spring

The decorators say Purple, Berry, Orange, Citrus, anything bright and colourful. Give your favourite room a facelift and hang some colour.

We've created some colourful new paintings using these exciting colours and they look absolutely fresh and fabulous!

POPULAR DEMAND

We had such a successful Life Drawing Workshop with Kirsty Humphrys that we just have to put on another. The weather is glorious and I'm sure that by October the 18th, it will be even warmer and the nude models will be very happy indeed. Note your diaries for the 18th October. There will be a flyer coming out within the next few days. Book early because we're only having 6 in the class.
